語学国際セミナーB Rubric

	S	A	B	C	D
Understand strategies for communication in international environments (A)	Is adept at using multiple strategies to communicate effectively international environments	Identifies and demonstrates ways to communicate effectively international environments	Identifies ways to communicate in international environments	Explains important facets of communication in international environments	Cannot identify how to communicate in international environments
Demonstrate strategies for clear communication in English (F)	Is adept at using multiple strategies to communicate effectively international environments in English	Identifies and demonstrates ways to communicate effectively international environments in English	Identifies ways to communicate in international environments in English	Explains important facets of communication in international environments in English	Cannot identify how to communicate in international environments in English
Understand different kinds of international experiences (F)	Explain in-depth about multiple ways many different kinds of international experiences	Explain good and bad points about different kinds of international experiences	Identify and give basic explanation of some kinds of international experiences	Understands basic requirements of going overseas	Little understanding of any kind of international experience
Demonstrate how to plan and manage overseas travel using English (A)	Explains in English a realistic and actionable plan for going overseas, noting both positives and drawbacks of the plan	Explains in English a reasonable plan and budget for how to go overseas	Explains in English a basic plan and budget of how to go overseas	Explains a plan for going overseas in English, but lacks important information regarding the budget, paperwork, timeline, etc.	Explains elements of a plan, but it is not cohesive or detailed enough to be actionable at all.

Small Group Projects: 40
Self-Reflection: 30
Final project: 30